

The airwaves are owned by the PUBLIC. I believe that the ownership of the media outlets is already concentrated in too few hands. Please do not do away with all the regulations with respect to the number of media outlets that one company may own. Do not stifle new and independent voices by allowing a few corporations to own everything.